

Matt Caraway Attains Rank of Eagle Scout

Article published Oct 22, 2009

Published 10/22/2009 12:00 AM

Updated 10/22/2009 11:04 AM

Photo courtesy of Lori Wells

Pictured (left to right) are, Ben Krom, Brendan Krom, Scott Caraway Matt Caraway, and project advisor and architect Ted Dombroski. Not pictured are Troop 471 members Michael Belden, Evan McGloin, Steve O'Connor, Zac O'Connor, and Brian Dombroski.

Matthew Caraway has attained the rank of Eagle Scout following the completion of his leadership project, which involved researching, planning, and purchasing materials for a handicapped-accessible ramp at Guilford Interfaith Ministries' new facility. Caraway mustered Guilford Troop 471 and the scouts completed the ramp with 200 volunteer hours. Caraway is a 2009 graduate of Guilford High School who currently attends Muhlenberg College.